Accommodation

- The boat : Escorting us in the Park will be our new 19m X 4m support boat and small tender. The boat is crewed by a Captain, a Cook and a Deck Hands. The boat has a bath room, with a western toilet, and a shower. At the front there is plenty of space for relaxing along with a large covered in dining room at the rear of the boat. Our boat is equipped with 4 cabins and the upper deck has a sun lounge deck with bean bags and deck chairs. We can even set up a hammock for you.

- The tents : When on the islands we have very comfortable insect resistant Safari Style tents that you can stand up in. You will sleep on stretcher style beds which are very comfortable and we even have small stools to sit on around camp. We set up a bush toilet with a toilet tent for some privacy and a nice toilet seat to sit upon.

- In hotels in a double / twin room (standard equivalent to 2 or 3 * French). Private sanitary facilities.

- In losmen some nights (equivalent to hostels or local guest house held by locals), simpler comfort.

- Homestay: basic comfort, sleeping can be common, sanitary to share. These accommodations, although more rustic, allow you to immerse yourself in local life.

If you wish, to promote the exchange and sharing, you can provide a little attention for our guests (eg local specialty of your region, ...)

* Hot water is sometimes not available in all rooms.

Sleeping and Camping Arrangements

You will spend most nights of the trip in a mosquito-proven safari-style tent. We also provide you with a stretcher bed. While camping on the beach we do not provide any sleeping bags, pillows, or sheets due to hygiene reasons. Nights in the Park are fairly warm, especially in the tents, however, we suggest bringing a lightweight sleeping bag or sleeping bag liner and a couple of sarongs which can be used as a sheet or blanket. The crew will install a toilet tent with a toilet seat for your use at the campsite. Our support boat facilities include two bathrooms, with a hand shower, a flushing toilet, and hand basins. The boat has multiple socket outlets. However, we suggest charging your phones and any other devices during the day while the engine is running. The boat has air-conditioned sleeping cabins. However, the AC is powered by a generator which will be switched off during the night to avoid noise pollution. During the night you are free to make use of the battery-powered marine fans in the cabins. Bedding and towels are provided in the cabins. Once you have boarded the support boat on the first day of kayaking, you will be shown to your cabin, where you can store your belongings. During your trip, you might have the unpleasant experience of noticing some rubbish, left by local tourists or swept ashore by the sea, on some of the islands we visit. Please refrain from littering at any time and make sure you take back everything you brought to the islands. During the trip, we clean up the beaches of every island we set camp on, but this is an ongoing process. You are welcome to join in the beach clean-up if you wish. Further, we suggest that if you take any batteries into the country, take them with you out of the country once you are leaving. Most of the lesser developed countries do not have the proper facilities to take care of used batteries.

Budget & exchange

The currency in Indonesia is the Indonesian Rupiah, Rp (IDR)

Visit <http://www.xe.com> for the latest currency converter and exchange rates. You can withdraw Indonesian Rupiahs from in-country ATMs or exchange money at the airport/local currency exchange offices. ATMs and exchange desks are only found on bigger islands like Bali (Denpasar, Ubud, Sanur). The cost of an average meal in Java is around 3US$ to 8US$; in Bali it is 4US$ to 11US$.

When purchasing souvenirs, we ask that our travelers resist the temptation to buy traditional items which are part of local families/the countries heritage. We also ask our travelers to respect the Species Protection Agreements (CITES) which aims to protect more than 2,500 species of animals and 30,000 species of threatened plants by prohibiting the trade of hides, ivory, scales, corals, shells, and the import of live exotic animals.

Tips

In case you would like to show your appreciation to a particular Guide or Crew for a job well done, please do so at your own discretion. Please remember to mention any good service provided by a member of the Crew tour local manager Fitri or myself. This is a good encouragement for our Guides and Crew to keep up their good performance. A typical daily tip is approximately Rp 150,000 or AUD$15. This is per kayaker/guest not per support staff member. Thus on a 5-day kayak, a reasonable tip would be Rp 750,000 or AUD$75 per kayaker/guest.

Helpful equipment

Snorkeling in The Komodo National Park

Your Guide will show you where to snorkel and where to find the best coral or fish. Please follow his instructions at all times. The Komodo Park is known for its strong currents and our Guide will point out where it will be safe for you to snorkel. You are snorkeling with wildlife and at no time should you chase or touch any dolphins, turtles, manta rays or other fauna. You are welcome to watch or swim with them as long as you keep your distance and they do not feel threatened by your presence. Some of them might be curious and might come closer to check you out. Avoid touching any coral or fish with your flippers while snorkeling and do not snorkel in low-tight as you could injure yourself on the corals. Coral can give you nasty cuts which often get infected. We recommend bringing some waterproofed dressing and alcohol swabs. Further, we suggest wearing your rash shirt while snorkeling to protect your skin from sunburn.

Trekking in The Komodo National Park

The Komodo National Park is a protected wildlife zone and trekking in the Park should only be done in the allocated areas. Please follow your Guide or the Rangers at all times and do not divert on any other tracks. Please wear appropriate walking boots and clothing (enclosed shoes or trekking sandals, sun-protecting gear, and a hat). Please bring along sunscreen and mosquito repellent.

You may also want to bring:

- A camera and spare batteries/portable charger
- A power plug travel adapter
- A head torch and spare batteries
- A pocket knife
- A fast drying micro-fibre beach towel
- A bath towel
- Blister plasters
- A small personal first aid kit
- Zip lock bags to protect your important documents and electronics
- A laundry bag/bin bag for your dirty clothes
- Tissues
- Earplugs

Luggage

Please bring a small rucksack to use as a day bag. You can bring this as hand luggage on the airplane. You will carry your lunch, water, spare layers and any personal medication with you each day in this bag. You will also need a larger bag to store your other clothes and belongings in, please ensure that this is a soft bag like a rucksack or holdall rather than a hard cased suitcase because it is more practical. We recommend packing all of your clothes in plastic bags so that they stay dry in the event of wet weather.

Medicine

Your guide is a trained first-aider and will carry a full first aid kit at all times during the trip. We recommend that you bring a small personal first aid kit containing any medication you may need such as inhalers, plasters, antiseptic and painkillers.

Passport

To go to Indonesia travelers need a passport which is valid for at least six months after the date of entry. It is your responsibility to confirm your specific passport requirements and proof of onwards travel is required.

Visa

Travelers staying in Indonesia for less than 30 days do not need to obtain a visa. It is your responsibility to confirm your specific visa requirements.

Health information & recommendations

It is your responsibility to check that your personal insurance covers everything in this trip. A consultation with your doctor is a prerequisite for any trip. Malaria prophylaxis is advised if your trip goes to Flores, Komodo, Sumatra, Sulawesi, the Sunda Islands or Kalimantan. Anti-malaria treatments are not necessary in Bali, Java or Lombok. Avoid contact with mosquitoes as much as possible: apply repellents, wear long trousers/sleeves and sleep with a mosquito net. The World Health Organisation can provide further details of the latest health news and medical advice.

Weather

We are running our kayaking trips in the dry season, so in the perfect situation, you should not experience much or any rain. However, the influence of climate change has arrived here too and you might experience a few showers during the trip. Conditions can be windy at times depending on the season. If it is too windy or unsafe to kayak we will cover the distance with our support boat. Temperatures in the park are always warm ranging from mid 20's - the mid-'30s during the day and low 20s - mid-'20s during the night. The sun is very strong so you must protect yourself at all times even if the sky appears to be cloudy. Please click here for more weather information in the Komodo National Park.

Kayaking in The Komodo National Park

Conditions

In the park, the areas we kayak in, are mostly protected by the surrounding islands, which means we should not encounter large swells or waves. However, the park is known for its strong currents due to the water channeling in between the islands. We try to avoid kayaking against the current but if you find yourself in a situation with strong currents, swells or waves involved, stay calm and seek attention from your Guide. Follow your Guide at all times and try not to drift away too much. If you are drifting away or falling behind, please seek attention from your Guide.

Electricity

Indonesia uses European-style plugs with two round pins. Voltage is normally 220 V 50 Hz except in a few places where it is 110 V.

Local time

Indonesia is spread across three time zones. The Lesser Sunda Islands use Coordinated Universal Time (UTC)/ Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) +8. Indonesia does not use Daylight Saving Time (DST).

Topography

School Visit

A lot of guests are asking what they can bring along to hand out to the children during the school visit. We suggest you only bring a small number of supplies, something light to carry in your luggage. The school and the children are always happy to receive any donations like writing materials, colouring books, cards, pens, pencils, stickers, and sports equipment, such as tennis balls, skipping ropes, bats, balls, etc. Please do not feel obliged to bring anything with you to donate to the school as this is a personal choice. Please refrain from handing out lollies. There are no dentists located on the islands.

Sustainable tourism

As adventure and wilderness travel experts who run trips to some of the most remote parts of the world, we take responsible tourism very seriously.

We respect the 'Leave No Trace' outdoor ethical code and try to explore this beautiful location whilst causing minimal environmental damage.

The Leave No Trace policy can be summarized in 7 simple steps which we hope you will follow during our trip...

1. Be prepared
2. Stick to trails and camp over night right
3. Stash your trash and pick up waste
4. Leave it as you find it
5. Be careful with fire
6. Respect wildlife
7. Be considerate of other visitors

Over the years we have built up good relations with our local suppliers and we are keen to support local businesses as much as possible. We are a small company and we pay our local partners and suppliers directly insuring fair rates.

Our small group sizes not only provide a more intimate adventure but also cause less impact on the environment and local communities.

We expect all who travel with us to support and uphold our Sustainable Tourism philosophies.
